Production Note
Cornell University Library produced this volume to replace the irreparably deteriorated original. It was scanned using Xerox software and equipment at 600 dots per inch resolution and compressed prior to storage using CCITT Group 4 compression. The digital data were used to create Cornell's replacement volume on paper that meets the ANSI Standard Z39.48-1984. The production of this volume was supported in part by the New York State Program for the Conservation and Preservation of Library Research Materials and the Xerox Corporation. TOWN OF SOUTHOLD,

LONG ISLAND.

Personal Index prior to 1698,

AND

INDEX OF 1698.

COMPILED AND COPIED FOR THE PURPOSE OF HAVING CORRECTIONS SUGGESTED AND GREATER FULLNESS AND ACCURACY ATTAINED AND PRESERVED, ESPECIALLY AS TO THE FIRST OR EARLY SETTLERS OF THE TOWN, INCLUDING ALL NAMED IN OR PRIOR TO THE LIST OF 1698.

BY CHARLES B. MOORE.

☞ NOTICE.—Any person discovering an error or imperfection is requested to send a written statement, with exact reference to authorities, books or records, to the Town Clerk, or to CHARLES B. MOORE.

New York:
JOHN MEDOLE, PRINTER, 193 PEARL STREET.
1868.

NOTICE

Space is reserved to add names of any other persons living in 1698 who had any connection with or descent from Southold.

A separate (third) Index has been commenced, called Index of 1730, to embrace all residing in or connected with the town who were not early enough to be embraced in either of the foregoing, and who did not live or remain in the town until 1775.

And a fourth Index has also been started, and filled with names of many persons living in the town at the commencement of the Revolutionary War, called Index of 1775.

Persons disposed to pursue the investigation or to aid it are invited to separate the names accordingly. Such a plan has been found indispensable for accuracy and comprehensiveness. References from one Index to another will easily facilitate family traces.

PERSONAL INDEX PRIOR TO 1698.

INDEX OF PERSONS, NOT IN THE CENSUS LIST OF 1698, WHO DIED IN OR REMOVED FROM THE TOWN OF SOUTHOLD PRIOR TO 1698, OR ABOUT THAT DATE, INCLUDING SOME KNOWN AS ANCESTORS OF THE SETTLERS OR AS CASUAL VISITORS; WITH REFERENCES TO RECORDS OF ANY KIND RESPECTING EACH; THE NAMES ARRANGED, SO FAR AS CONVENIENT, ALPHABETICALLY, AND THE RECORDS REFERRED TO IN THE ORDER OF THEIR DATES.

ABBREVIATIONS USED.

B. for born; D. for died; M. for married; Æ. for aged; C. for child or children; S. for son; dau. for daughter; S. P., without offspring; prob. for probably (not a mere guess, but where the evidence would produce that result in the absence of contradictory evidence); perh. for perhaps. The figure [1] prefixed to a name indicates that the person named was deemed the original first settler in Southold of his family, or as head of the family; [2] for second; [3] for third, &c. The figures of Nos. appended to names of children, &c., refer to the numbers on the Index of Census of 1698. Variations of spelling little regarded.

For locations, S. is sometimes used for Southold village; H. for Hashamomach; O. for Oyster Ponds, now Orient; C. for Cutchogue; M. for Mattetuck; A. for Aquebogue.

Overton and Downs, officers or connections of officers under Cromwell.

Col. Overton, referred to in a letter of Andrew Marvel to John Milton, dated 2 June, 1654, "was one of those steady republicans whom Cromwell, unable to conciliate, was under the necessity of securing. After a previous imprisonment in the Tower, he was confined during the Protector's life in the Island of Jersey, and obtained his liberty from the Parliament a short time only before the restoration" of Charles II. He then stood out against the Restoration, at Hull, in March, 1660, but could do nothing.

Arrested in December, 1660, but, not being a regicide, not tried. (Symmons' Life of Milton, p. 456; 1 Pepys' Journal, 32, 132.)

John Overton, a print-seller, born 1640; had a print of himself (3d Nob. Gr., 428). An old family place in Southampton, supposed his native place. Several places in England bear the name, in old times a common one. The place in York county had a free school, founded in 1655, under the will of Ann Middleton, bequeathing £1,000.

* Wm. Vassal, the father, was deceased. Nicholas Ware was acting executor. The dates, arranged, appear thus:

1656. March 3. Deed signed by Margaret and Mary Vassal for interest in lands in Massachusetts.

April 16. The marriage, at Barbadoes, of No. 321.

May 8. The above deed not yet delivered in Massachusetts, and thus affected by the marriage. Power of attorney by N. Ware, ex'r, to Capt. Joshua Hubbard, of Hingham, to sell property in Massachusetts.

1657. July 18. Deed of this date, signed by Joshua Hubbard, Judith Vassal and her husband, and Adams, husband of another sister, stating that J. H. signed it "on behalf of his late wife."

Enough is not shown of this deed or release to know when or where it was signed by J. H., nor whether by the Capt., under a power of attorney, or the clergyman as husband; if the latter, probably not until after Sept., 1659, when he returned. Prof. Styles' MSS., which give the precise date of his return, state that he had three children by his first wife, and that she died "four days after his return," which would be on 9 Sept., 1659; and if she died, as was too common, in child-birth, or with a young child, after a sea voyage, there is no discrepancy in having three children; nor any thing very remarkable in the doctor's charge for services or in the mere date of a deed prepared to be signed by others first, and waiting such return for her signature, then altered and signed by the husband for his late wife. (See 17 N. E. Reg., p. 58.)
